

UMTA Now!

Stakeholder Workshop

This is an Interactive workshop with key stakeholders in the city to enrich the ask for an empowered Unified Metropolitan Transport Authority (UMTA)

Praja RAAG has embarked on a call to action report, which will be submitted to the GoK to enable an empowered UMTA.

If you are an agency in the city which affects or is affected by transportation in the city then this workshop is where you should be.

The functions of the UMTA is currently envisaged to cover the following broad areas

- 1) Information
- 2) Planning
- 3) Regulation
- 4) Finance

Request you to block your calendar and be present in person for the workshop. It is very important for us, and the city, to hear your views on this topic.

Request you also to be accompanied by a representative from your department who can provide perspectives & inputs on the topic throughout the session.
